Fire Prevention Provides Many Preventive Services

Have you seen a Fire Inspector in your district recently? If not you may expect to see him any day now. The Fire Prevention Act governs the activities of the Fire Commissioner and staff in so far as fire investigations, fire inspectors, maintaining of fire records and fire fighting instruction is concerned. It therefore follows that the Fire Commissioner's work falls into different categories such as:

There is one inspection of buildings and the investigation of fire and this work is conducted jointly with fire chiefs in every community in Alberta. The object of an investigation is to determine the cause of fire particularly where loss of life occurs and where there has been a large property loss. After a thorough investigation, many important lessons are learned that can be passed along to building owners and proprietors with view of preventing similar fire losses recurring. If necessary the Fire Commissioner's staff and fire chiefs have the authority to compel correction of fire hazards if the proprietor does not see the need to maintain a building in the best possible condition to prevent a fire.

An important division of the Fire Commissioner's work has to do with fire department organization, testing of fire equipment and assisting the fire chief in training fire fighters. Experienced fire instructors are employed to assist all fire departments but particularly the volunteer brigades.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mountain View hall was the scene of a large gathering Friday evening, when friends and neighbors gathered to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Fry and family.

A very enjoyable evening was spent when two games were played, one conducted by Miss Gerry Macdonald and the other by Mrs. Archer. The program also included an instrumental by Kenneth and Evelyn Neufeld, an accordion solo by Judy Poles, a duet by Rev. and Mrs. Dietz, a solo by Neil Neufeld, a song by six girls from Mt. View Sunday school, a duet by Irene and Allen Neufeld and a reading by Mrs. A. Adkinson.

A presentation from Mt. View church was made by Mr. Max Archer; from the Sunday school by Mrs. Russell Sherrick, and from the community by Mr. Ken Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Kjos of Austin, Minn., and Mrs. Anna Kjos of Seattle, Wash., were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gebbers. Mrs. Anna Kjos remained to visit her niece, Mrs. Gebbers, for two weeks.

Bonnie Claytons of Calgary spent the past week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gebbers.

Mr. John Hunter and Mr. Howard Miller of Calgary were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hunter.

Mrs. Marge Gillen, Judy and Teresa of Calgary, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Snyder and family were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John W. H. Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Scheidt Sr. have returned home after spending a lengthy time visiting in the middle states. Mr. Scheidt received medical treatment at Excelsior Springs, Missouri.

Harmattan News

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Chaffey of Vancouver, B.C., have been visiting with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. Turnbull.

Mrs. Tony Spooner was hostess to the Zella Women's Institute, with most members present. Plans were made for a bazaar to be held in October. Mrs. Vic Johnson gave a very interesting paper on "Citizenship." The bit of fun was given by Mrs. Arthur Waldruff, with Mrs. Knight being the winner. Next meeting will be held at Mrs. Dick Nelson's, with Miss Helen Howard, home economist, as guest speaker.

Mrs. Otto Folkman of Westcott has been visiting for several days with Mrs. Tony Spooner.

Service at St. George's Anglican Church on Sunday, October 5th, will be Harvesting Thanksgiving, beginning at 3 p.m.

HOBBY AND HANDICRAFT DISPLAY COMING UP

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Didsbury Branch of the Canadian Legion decided at its last meeting to include a "hobby and handicraft" show with its annual art display each year. The first will be held in March, 1959, and interested persons are asked to contact Mrs. G. Mullen for further information. Suggested categories for exhibiting were copper work, leathercraft, petit-point, pictures and articles made from foam rubber and wood fibres. Additional sections could be added if warranted.

The auxiliary is interested in making their exhibit as interesting as possible and providing local craftsmen with an opportunity to display their work.

Subscription Note:

A red line under your name means your subscription is overdue.

A blue line means your subscription is coming due next month. Please pay out of town subscriptions by money order.

CLIFF JOHNSON OPENS RADIO - TV SHOP

Mr. Cliff Johnson has rented the premises formerly occupied by Dickau Electric and will be handling the radio and television sales and service, formerly associated with Edford Motors, from the new location.

Opening date has been set for Saturday, October 4th.

WEST NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walton of Edmonton visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lowrie over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hogg and boys spent the weekend with the latter's sister, Mr. and Mrs. McMann of Ekeville.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Befus spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. P. Luit.

This week should see the end of harvesting in this district.

Local Golfers Win Chinook Trophy

Members of the Didsbury men's golf club won the Chinook League Trophy at Innisfail last Sunday. Rain and high winds restricted play to nine holes, but it was felt that the Didsbury team was so far ahead by then that there was not much point in continuing.

Mr. Cliff Sorenson of the local squad won the individual trophy with an average score of 72.

SOMEONE'S OFF BASE . . .

Someone, at the moment we don't know who, entered a home in the northwest section of town last Saturday night. The looter got away with approximately $55, money that had been set aside by an elderly couple to use as the need arose.

The only thing that can be said to this invader is that he should make some arrangement to return the money. Just dropping it in the mail could be an easy answer.

Should he be apprehended it's a fair bet that he'll have plenty of time to think it over, under stricter supervision than he has been enjoying.

5 Contestants For Council Seats

With one withdrawal from the school board slate, town elections to be held on October 15 will be confined to a race between five contestants for the two town council vacancies.

Mr. L. Clayton has withdrawn from the school board, and Mr. C. Leeson and Mr. T. Dageford will fill the two vacancies by acclamation.

Those eligible to vote on the 15th include: any property owner; anyone over the age of 21 who has resided in town since November 1st, 1957; must be a British or Canadian citizen.

Ballots must be marked with an "X" opposite the two candidates you favor.

SHOWER HELD FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Didsbury Evangelical U. B. Church basement was the scene of a bridal shower for Miss Agnes Goosen recently with about 45 ladies present.

After contests and musical selections a telephone filled with gifts was taken to the bride to be. She was assisted in opening her gifts by Mary Goosen and Owen Brado. Upon opening the gifts, the bride thanked everyone present for remembering her in this way.

Lunch was then served by the ladies' aid and a departed wishing her much happiness.

Previous showers were also held at the home of Mrs. Valenta Wamnamaker and Miss Joanne Adams and Lyla Spooner.

Didsbury Arena Board Answer Critics . . .

The Editor, Didsbury Pioneer:

Dear Sir: We think there has been some misunderstanding with regard to allowing the Kinsmen Club the use of the arena, to hold a five-car bingo.

As you know we are placed on the Arena Board by various organizations, which financed and built the Didsbury Memorial Arena as a large community project at considerable cost.

The arena is not yet finished. There should be a good use by the arena board, in making needed improvements to a needy community project.

It is my hope that the offer made to the Kinsmen Club five-car bingo committee which we would like to have printed to enlighten the public.

Didsbury Arena Board.

E. C. Pieper, Sec.-Treas.

September 19, 1958

Fred Rodway, Chairman.

Kinsmen Five-Car Bingo.

In reply to your request for use of the Didsbury Memorial Arena to hold a Five-Car-Bingo, to raise monies for community projects.

All members of the Arena Board have discussed this request. We are all in agreement with your cause, but also feel we have been placed on the Arena Board by the various organizations mainly to try and maintain sound financial operations of same.

We hereby make the following offer: A rental fee of $50.00, for the night of the Bingo, with the understanding that the Kinsmen Club would be responsible to prepare the Arena for this project.

That after you have netted $1,000 clear, we respectfully request 10 per cent of the amount over $1,000 be turned over to the Arena Board for direct improvements to the Arena.

To name a few of these, we should have ceilings and insulation work done in the waiting rooms; also paint work. For a number of years now we have needed water in the Arena, and this would be our next goal.

We know the Kinsmen Club is most interested in placing one or more of the members on the Arena Board, and as you are aware of the obligations each club is required to meet for each voting member, any payment of the 10 per cent above your net profit of $1,000 would be applied to this objective.

Yours very truly,

Secretary-Treasurer, Arena Board.

The September meeting of Melvin W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Glen Roberts, with seven members and three visitors present. Correspondence was read and business transacted until the next meeting, due to so many members being absent.

The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Cecil Shields.

Opposition Leader Makes A Call

The Rt. Hon. Lester B. Pearson, leader of the opposition in the Canadian Commons, paid a short visit to this area on Wednesday, Oct. 1.

Mr. Pearson was accompanied by Mr. Mel Shannon of Calgary and Mr. and Mrs. John Deere. Stopping at the Curtis Clarke farm at Carstairs, he was welcomed to the Municipal District of Mountain View by Reeve William J. Barnall. Whilst enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke, Mr. Pearson met nearly 100 residents of the district, including the grade XII class of the Carstairs high school.

Reeve Barnall, who acted as host to Mr. Pearson during his trip through the municipality, stated that Mr. Pearson was keenly interested in all phases of agriculture and of the farming conditions and problems connected with this municipal district. Mr. Pearson expressed a keen desire to return at a later date for a more leisurely visit.

By the Advertisers in "Your" Newspaper . . .

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned if you do not use more than a 2 line space. A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in town by looking at its paper — it's the best possible town advertiser. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own in the newspaper is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live wide-awake and liberal advertising business men."

May We Remind You Again . . .

Elections for two town councillors and two members for the school board will take place here on Wednesday, October 15. Five have been nominated for the council posts while three will go for seats on the school board. Competition seems very keen, if we can believe street-corner gossip, and it should be one of the better civic elections in years—by this we mean that various groups are interested in the welfare and administration of "our town." That's the way it most certainly should be. We sincerely hope all eligible voters will take an interest too, and cast a ballot for their favorites on election day. We don't care how you vote — just make sure you vote!

Sports Hold The Spotlight . . .

With the "World Serious" underway there will be little other spoken of by sports-minded people for the next few days. However, in the twilight of a fine summer season we'd like to mention a few of the local sporting fraternity who enjoyed one of their better years: Early in the spring the senior hockey club finished the season with a fine record; baseball came into its own again as the Little Leaguers, juveniles and seniors were punching the apple at every opportunity; the golfers, male and female, have kept the local course humming at every opportunity and have won more than their share of out-of-town tournaments; followers of senior football (an out-of-town attraction), are now dreaming about the Grey Cup game late in November. But, as we mentioned a bit earlier, the eyes and ears of the sports-minded will be focussed on the "World Serious" for a few days. The majority in these parts will be saying: "Beat those Yanks!" That is unless they have a pool ticket on the New York Bombers.

Just For The Record . . .

In passing the benches situated in front of the Royal Bank we've noticed that sitting space is at a premium on fine days. We've had many fine days this summer and we only wish we had a tape-recorder in the vicinity of those benches — 't would be no heavy job then to find fresh views, fresh news and fresh copy for the columns of your favorite fireside companion. Wonder how much a tape-recorder costs?

Eight-Bald . . .

Being one of those who are suffering from the middle-age bulge and the receding hairline, we get a boost out of the advertisements regarding a renewal of hair growth on the old pate. So far we've not been hungry enough to accept the bait. Yet there is one little chit that caught the eye as it crossed our desk. Goes something like this: "This hair restorer," the druggist assured his patron, "is so good that it will grow hair on a billiard ball."

"That's nice," the customer replied, "but wouldn't it slow up my game?"

NOT ALL THE BAD EGGS ARE IN THE PRODUCERS' CRATES

We have heard some bitter words spoken over the results of the recent egg production in Alberta. We doubt if egg production in Alberta is sufficiently concentrated at the present time to justify a producers' marketing board. We have observed the egg market from time to time and have marvelled that producers have put up with some of the injustices imposed upon them by provincial and federal marketing regulations.

These injustices are glaringly reflected in the spread between prices which the producers receive for their eggs and the consumer pays when they are purchased through ordinary retail channels. We have seen the spread when it was as high as 24 cents a dozen.

It is very good to protect the consumer, but a crumb of consideration here and there might well be tossed to the producer.

THE GREAT VICTORY . . .

Word has come through this week that the Longshoremen's strike on the West Coast has been settled . . . at a price. The striking union gained some advantages in fact nearly three quarters of what they demanded, but the gains were at a terrific cost in wages and general economy.

It is said that the men will have to work steadily for five years before they actually enjoy any advantage from the strike settlement. This is the time it will take to make up the wages lost through the increases gained.

How dumb can some of these labor leaders get?

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar and family were recent supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGaffin.

Mrs. O. Moore and Mrs. Lily McGaffin of Calgary spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Howton.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry McMullen were Red Deer visitors recently. Mr. and Mrs. M. Morrison and family were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Morrison on Sunday.

Boss: "Jones, I understand that you've been going over my head."
Jones (meekly): "Not that I know of, sir."
Boss: "Isn't it true that you've been praying for a raise?"

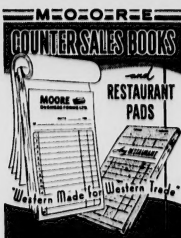

WHAT A SURPRISE . . .
"For months," said the gada-bout, "I couldn't discover where my husband spent his evenings."
"And then what happened?" breathlessly asked her friend.
"Well," she answered, "one evening I went home and there he was."

FARMS GROW TOO . . .

The future of the family farm may not be as uncertain as some people have suggested, according to a speaker at the recent North American Farm Economics Conference in Winnipeg.

The well-run family farm is doing very well because it has become bigger, more efficient and highly mechanized. What are disappearing are the run-down little farms that were too small for modern agriculture.

In the old days, 100 acres in the East or 160 in the West were about all the average could handle and they provided enough cash income to maintain the average farm family. But today, with machines, and depending of course on the type farming followed, a family may be able to handle 10 times as much land and only by so doing is there any hope of sufficient income.

Carstairs Operate Citizens' Patrol

(The following article was borrowed from the pages of the Carstairs News. Could be the same treatment may help here. We quote):

Following the break-in last Friday morning the plan for a citizen patrol in Carstairs was revived and is now operating with two men on duty each night.

Approximately 65 citizens have put their names on the list and are available for patrol duty. An organization meeting was held on Wednesday night and plans of operation discussed and agreed upon.

The patrols will not only provide protection against robbery and theft but will be invaluable should a fire break out in town during the night. They will also check up on speeders and other by-law infractions in town and names of offenders will be handed over to the R.C.M.P. for prosecution.

It is hoped that this will curtail some of the senseless and dangerous driving which has been a problem periodically for some time.

Those taking part in the citizen's patrol are to be commended for their efforts on behalf of the citizens of Carstairs.

FARM INCOME UP . . .

Cash returns to Canadian farmers from the sale of farm products during the first six months of this year were estimated at $13 billion, 9% higher than for the like 1957 period. Increase is mainly due to sale of livestock and animal products as returns from field crops were slightly lower.

THE Homemaker

By HELEN HOWARD
District Home Economist

DEAR FRIENDS.

Now that the cottons are gradually being put away for another year, woollens, acetates, silks, rayons and other various fabrics will be the major material for garments. With the change of fabrics in garments comes a change of method in the upkeep of the wardrobe. Dry-cleaning can be satisfactorily done with comparative safety in the home — if the right kind of cleaning solvent is used, if the correct methods are followed and if a certain precautions are always observed.

The fundamental process in dry-cleaning is the immersion and agitation of a garment or article in a dry-cleaning solvent. A dry-cleaning solvent, though it looks like water, quickly dissolves greasy and oily residue which would not be dissolved by water. However, it must be remembered that a dry-cleaning solvent can never be used in the same manner as water.

Some unsafe cleaning solvents are naphtha, high-test gasoline, or ordinary gasoline. These should never be used in home dry-cleaning because there is much danger of explosion and fire. An individual may be seriously burned from such explosions.

The "flash point" of gasoline is very low — about 80 degrees F. Gasoline also gives off vapors readily and produce fumes which ignite instantaneously. Merely the process of lifting a silk or wool garment in and out of the gasoline may be sufficient to produce a spark of electricity, that will ignite the fumes, thus causing an explosion.

However, there are some comparatively safe cleaning solvents on the market. For safe home dry-cleaning, it is absolutely essential to use solvent or fluid that is non-explosive, evaporates slowly and has a "flash point" at least as high as 100 degrees F. Such preparations are known as dry-cleaning fluids, which are sold under different trade names and may be obtained in bulk at comparatively low costs. There are several types of cleaning fluids.

1. Carbon tetrachloride is not flammable nor explosive, but is too expensive for general dry-cleaning. It is excellent for emergency cleaning and spot removal, but gives off toxic fumes when used in large quantities.

2. The regular dry-cleaning solvents have a kerosene base. They are non-explosive under ordinary atmospheric conditions and therefore not as dangerous as kerosene. However, these dry-cleaning fluids may ignite and must therefore be kept away from fires. This type is the least expensive for home cleaning purposes.

Play safe — use the right type of cleaning solvent, one which is both non-explosive, non-flammable, and non-poisonous.

Notes From D.A.

District Agriculturalist
By HOWARD FULCHER

With the coming of fall and early winter, losses in cattle due to shipping fever (hemorrhagic septicemia) often occur. This disease occurs in cattle on farms and ranches as well as those being shipped. Shipping fever affects animals in the six months to two year age group most frequently. The affected animals have a high body temperature, accompanied by a loss of appetite and discharge from the nose, followed by coughing, difficult breathing, watery eyes, gauntness, stiffness of gait and often diarrhea. Recovery may be complete but often they carry on with a chronic form and are poor doers for quite some time. In many cases the animals affected develop pneumonia and die in a few days.

Control of this disease is best by eliminating many predisposing factors. These factors are all concerned with management and the weather and all lower an animal's natural resistance. Factors to avoid are rough handling in round up and corralling, wet yards and corrals, sudden changes in feed and water, and lack of ample dry bedding. Try to avoid weaning calves during bad weather.

Bacterin and anti serums can be used; in the case of bacterin injections, they should be administered three weeks before weaning or shipping, requiring two doses a week apart. This does not give immediate protection but builds up a protection for a longer period of time. Anti serums can be used for immediate protection but this protection is only for two to three weeks duration.

If bringing in outside feeders isolate for ten days and provide dry shelter, good hay and limited water. If you pasture these let them become accustomed to new pasture by short periods of grazing. To prevent an outbreak use bacterin injection or anti serums and avoid the predisposing factors which lower the animal's resistance.

LIGHT YOUR WAY ...

... WITH BIBLE STUDY

Who is Jesus Christ? Your salvation depends on the answer to this question.

We know that He was a man, for He was born as a child. He had a human body and soul. He had human feelings and actions. Let us look at what Scripture says on this. Paul states: "There is one God and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus." Jesus himself drew the attention of His disciples to Himself when He said: "Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I myself; handle Me and see, for a spirit hath no flesh and bones, as ye see Me have." And He showed, throughout His life, His human feelings. Jesus slept. Jesus hungered. Jesus thirsted. Jesus wept. Jesus suffered and died.

But was He just a man? Definitely not. He was, and is, also true God. At His birth, the angels so announced Him: "Unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord." We hear the testimony of the Father: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." We further hear the word of His disciples, especially Thomas: "My Lord and My God." His enemies admitted: "We know that Thou art a Teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles, except God be with Him." And this leads us to His many miracles, which alone could be done by God. Finally, His very resurrection proves that He was more than a man. Thus we can join Paul and say: "Christ came, who is over all, God blessed forever."

Thus, we may sum this up in a brief statement: Jesus Christ is true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true born of the Virgin Mary. In Him dwelleth the fullness of the God-head bodily. Yes, your salvation depends on this truth. For to be your Saviour, Jesus had to be both man and God.

The Super "88" Holiday Sport Coupe is one of two new body styles offered by Oldsmobile in 1959. The Oldsmobile has been completely restyled, with more glass area, passenger and luggage space and a host of engineering and accessory advancements. Steering is easier. There are new Air-Scoop brakes on all four wheels. Two new engines will mean greater operating economy. The windshield, with up to 870 square inches more glass, cuts deep into the roofline to give an unobstructed view of overhanging traffic signals. The wide, heat-resistant band across the top of the tinted rear window reduces heat penetration by about 84 per cent. Sculptured twin booms sweep full length along the body, highlighting Oldsmobile's unique two-tone styling for 1959.

WEDDINGS

LUFT - GOOSEN

A very pretty candlelight wedding was solemnized Friday, Sept. 26th at 7 p.m. in the Evangelical U.S. Church, Didsbury, when Agnes Goosen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Goosen, became the bride of August John Luft, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Luft of Didsbury. Rev. A. E. Suckel performed the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a full-length gown of three tiers of net trimmed with lace over satin. The lace bodice featured a pleated V-shaped neckline edged in net, with short sleeves and lace finger-tip gloves. The circular rayon embroidered edged chapel length veil misted from a cap of sequins and beads. She carried a cascade Bible arrangement of pink pinocchio sweetheart roses with streamers and wore three-strand pearls, a gift of the groom.

The bride's three attendants, Miss Mary Goosen, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, Miss Owen Brado and Mrs. Anne Glancey, sister of the bride, as bridesmaids, wore identical gowns of pink flock nylon over taffeta with matching finger-tip gloves and picture hats. They carried contemporary cascades of white spray mums.

Miss Darlene Goosen, niece of the bride, as flower girl, looked sweet in a blue flock nylon over taffeta dress. She carried a basket decorated with roses and spray mums. Doreen and Linda Bomer, nieces of the groom, as candle lighters, were dressed in blue flock nylon over taffeta.

Best man was Leonard Luft, brother of the groom, and ushers were Mr. Gordon Luft and Mr. Jake Goosen.

Miss Helen Swaim played the wedding music and Mr. Roy Stauffer sang "The Wedding Prayer" while the couple knelt before the altar, and "Oh Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

A reception for 83 guests was held in the E.V. Church basement, where the bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. Mr. Frank Goosen of Calgary acted as master of ceremonies and Rev. A. E. Suckel proposed the toast to the bride.

For the occasion the bride's mother was dressed in pink and wore a corsage of pink delight roses. The groom's mother chose a blue gown, with a corsage of briar-cliff roses.

Out-of-town guests were present from Nanaimo, B.C., Calgary, Nanion and Cremona.

For the honeymoon trip to the U.S., the bride and groom wore matching charcoal suits, with the bride choosing peach accessories. On their return they will take up residence in Didsbury.

Keep Money Sound

In a footnote to the recent bond sale, Bruce Hutchison has this to say in The Financial Post: "Any government which asks its people to buy billions of dollars' worth of its bonds must firmly intend that the money will be repaid in valuable coin and not in 50c dollars at the due date, or it is practising a wholesale fraud and legal counterfeiting."

"After debasing the coinage by about a half a decade, and agreeing this year to invest largely in government bonds, Canada should have got those simple facts through its head by now."

DISTRICT NEWSM.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

A number of ladies helped during the cleaning days at the college and much work was accomplished. There is a great deal to be done yet and help is still needed before the rooms of each building will be in order for the opening of school. More fruit has come in from B.C. and that too has meant much work for Mrs. Arthur Eby, who supervises the kitchen work. Some of the ladies who have helped us so much throughout the years still come to help prepare fruit for the deep freeze and the fruit shelves.

The library has been moved from the front room of the classroom building to the south one.

This has entailed much work and Mrs. Ormance Sherick assisted Miss Eby greatly in this work. All of the shelves cards were made at this time and days were spent doing this for the 3000 volumes or more, but at last the room is ready for students and it surely allows for better study where it is now. The third classroom will also be used for a study hall in the evenings. A box of good books has been sent to the college from Edmonton. They were books of Mrs. Price, who passed away recently. We appreciate this memorial contribution greatly. Perhaps you have a loved one who is greatly missed and you would like to place a book as a memorial in our library. We would be happy to have you bring this to our attention and we could advise you as to the type of book we require.

President Taylor has received a new appointment in the Didsbury Sunday school. The high school class has selected him as their teacher for the coming year. Miss Gladys Eby has been re-appointed teacher of the young people's class, which includes all of the college students.

The college is making a real plea for vegetables for the coming winter. It is believed that many people in the community have much more than they will need, and whether the quantity is much or little we will be pleased to receive it from those who have helped so much during the past years.

Fifty-eight students are expected this year. A number are coming from the State of Washington and two from Oregon. Several will come from British Columbia, one from Ontario and another from Iowa. We trust that all of them will arrive and that some others will decide to do so within the next week, for there is still a little time for decision. A number of local young people have enrolled, and nearly all of last year's students are returning.

SO TRUE . . .
Ideas are like children . . . your own are wonderful.

CREMONA NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Reid and family were Banff visitors last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lane and family were Cremona visitors last weekend.

The Sacrament of Communion will be held in the Cremona United Church next Sunday at 11:45, participating in World Communion Sunday.

The Sewing Circle met last week at the home of Mrs. B. Gano. Best wishes are extended to Mr. M. Earle and Mr. R. Camp, who both returned home from hospital last week.

Mrs. J. T. Lane is visiting in the Cremona district.

Bernice McBain is home from hospital after a stay of several days.

Mrs. E. Casebeer subbed last Friday for Mrs. Bennett in the grade two room. Mrs. Casebeer is commencing Monday to complete the teaching term at Water Valley. Mrs. Wigmore had too many pupils and the room is being divided.

Message From The W.I.'s Of Canada

All means of communication are becoming ever more important to the daily lives of Canadians. Radio and television have taken a valuable place in our lives. By this means, we are kept aware of national and international developments and trends. For many of us, however, nothing will ever quite replace the written word. Publications, good and bad, flood the market. Many are a most valuable means of enjoyment and information.

Among this mass of publications, the weekly newspaper plays an important part. The strength of a nation does not lie in governments and organizations alone, but in the calibre of small communities of which the nation is built. These groups, each with individual needs and interests, in addition to the need to know the world picture, must be interested in the activities of their community.

Here the weekly newspaper carries a great deal of responsibility. They publish news and items of local interest, and editorials on local problems and give an opportunity to the public to voice their views. Thus a good weekly gives a picture of the community it serves and the whole is a picture of Canadian life and problems. Even the personals, so often a part of the weekly newspaper, give us a picture of the joys and sorrows of our neighbors, which we can share, thus strengthening community good will, which is, in turn, the goodwill of the nation.

On behalf of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada, I am happy to have this opportunity to congratulate the Weekly Newspaper Association on the work they are doing, to thank them for publicly affording our organization, and to wish you all success in the future.

MRS. KEITH RAND, President
Federated Women's Institutes
of Canada

Promotion Exercises Held At United Missionary

The congregation of the United Missionary Church witnessed a very impressive service on Sunday, as five classes of the Sunday school went through their promotion exercises.

As one entered the auditorium, the words "Bless the Little Children to Come Unto Me" stood out clearly on the front wall. Truly, this is the purpose of the Sunday school — to bring the little ones in. The Sunday school has several departments, namely: cradle roll, beginners, primary, junior and senior. After three years in one department the child is promoted. The little folk looked very charming and important as they marched to the front in graduation caps and gowns. After each class gave their exercise they received certificates and marched through a rose-entwined gate to be received by their new teacher.

Certificates were rolled, tied with pink ribbon, and arranged on silver trays.

Following the regular service, the teachers and officers for the coming year were installed by Rev. W. D. Annett.

No one present could help but feel a new determination to strive more earnestly to further this great work of the Sunday school, and thus help promote God's Kingdom. October is Rally Month. C v r

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

How man can cope successfully with all phases of fear, sickness, and sin, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday. Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Unreality" will include John's account of the healing by Christ Jesus of the "man which was blind from his birth." (John 9:1-7).

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following: "Knowing that soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and Salvation."

The Golden Text is from Romans (13-12): "The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light."
